The Major Part of Our Fall Showing of
Lace Curtains, Lace Motifs and Edges,
Curtain Nets and Madrases
Are Now Being Shown on Our Fourth Floor.

Curtains and these similar materials form what is probably the largest and most interesting collection of decoratives and hangings that this store has ever assembled, and at this time of the year is the most interesting in the many vast and seasonable lines of merchandise in the upholstery and drapery section.

Additions will be received from time to time during the next few weeks, but the present collections would seem ample for any one wishing to make a selection.

Lace Curtains.

Here are embraced both imported and domestic curtains, an especially noteworthy line consisting of soft ivory and white tones in Duchess Lace, Brussels Net and Swiss Point. There is also shown a most attractive line of Lace Panels, in fine filet, cluny and antique laces, mounted on scrims, and also Marie Antoinette and Panel Curtains, mounted on nets.

Panel Curtains are largely featured and will be much used in connection with the numerous effects in period furnishings and decorations.

Fine Voile and Marquisette Curtains, in every possible quality and design; plain hemstitched, edged, lace edge with drawnwork, insets of medallions, insertions, etc.

The other styles in curtains embrace Tambour Nets, Irish Point, Lacet Arabian, Marie Antoinette, Renaissance.

Panel Curtains, $5.00 to $35.00.

Net Curtains, $2.75 to $25.00.

Voile Curtains, $1.50 to $10.00.

Filet and Cluny Motifs and Laces.

These are the Real Filet and Cluny Motifs, in squares, diamonds, corners, oblong and other shapes. These will be used for making panels, table covers, pillows, scarfs, curtains and various styles of fancy work. The Lace Edges and Insertions are in a number of patterns from simple to elaborate.

Table Covers, Panels, Pillow Covers and Fancy Work of all kinds; designed and made to order from the laces upon choice.

New Scotch Madras.

A recent importation of Madras from Scotland. Qualities and designs, such as are woven only in that country. Small designs and the larger ones, all of which are very attractive. These are being used for curtains for dining-rooms, living-rooms, bedrooms, libraries, etc.

25c, 35c, 40c, 50c to 85c yard.

Table Covers and Runners, Pillow Tops, Couch Covers and Portieres

In the section of these decoratives for the home, taste and suitability of color and fabric play an important part. Their relationship to hangings, color schemes and furniture is intimate, and when proper consideration is given, a beautiful effect of warmth, hospitality and homeliness is produced.

Table Runners of Tapestry, Brocade and Silk.

The showing consists of rich brocades, velours, velvets, tapestries and fiber silks. Silk Runners, $2.00 each; Tapestry, $2.00 to $6.00; Brocades, $6.00 to $9.00.

Church was the scene of a charming wedding last evening when Miss Nellie Grace Morrison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Alexander Morrison, became the bride of Mr. Benjamin Amos Harlan. The ceremony was performed at 8 o'clock by the Rev. D. I. Humphreys. The church was decorated with white dahlias against a background of palms and ferns.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was dressed in white satin and rose point lace, and under a tulle veil was arranged a wreath of lilies of the valley. She carried a shower of bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley. Miss Evelyn Morrison was maid of honor for her sister, and wore a gown of princess lace over pink satin, and carried a shower bouquet of pink roses. The bridesmaids were Miss Gladys Benson of Baltimore, and Miss Helen Steward. Miss Benson's gown was of blue chiffon, while Miss Steward wore a pink chiffon gown. Each carried a shower bouquet of pink roses.

A small reception for the wedding party and relatives followed at the home of the bride, which was decorated with palms, pink dahlias and snapdragons. Later in the evening the young couple left for a wedding trip, when the bride wore a smart suit of Burgundy colored broadcloth and small black velvet hat. Upon their return they will reside at the Clifton apartment.

Among the out-of-town guests at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Weeley Yearley, of Baltimore; Miss Elizabeth Miller, of Havre de Grace; Miss Ernestine Rokos, of Baltimore; Miss Molly Morrison, of Baltimore; Mrs. Ruth Elliott, of Baltimore; and Miss Faddie Simpson, all of Baltimore.

The high nuptial mass was celebrated by Archbishop John J. Keane, first rector of the Catholic University of America, who also performed the ceremony, assisted by Very Rev. Peter J. O'Callaghan, C. Shields, dean of the Sisters' College of the Catholic University; Dr. Cyril S. W. Fay, Dr. Daniel M. Gorman, president of Dubuque College, and the Rev. The church was decorated with Easter lilies in alabaster vases and palms in the sanctuary.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore an exquisite French gown of duchesse satin embroidered in seed pearls and draped with old lace and chiffon. Her court train falling from the shoulders was of old lace finished with a wide border of duchesse satin embroidered in pearls and crystals. She wore a tulle veil, held with a coronet of pearls, and carried an old-fashioned bouquet of white roses, lilies of the valley and smilax, with a border of white lace. Her only ornament was a pendant of black onyx and diamonds set in platinum.

The maid of honor, Miss Mary O'Brien, of Vancouver, B. C., wore a gown of sea-foam green tulle with a picture hat of lace, and she carried a French bouquet of white roses and smilax in white lace holder. Her bridesmaids, Miss Bernardine Lagen and Mrs. Carl Ziepprecht, of Dubuque, were bridesmaids and their gowns were of hand-embroidered white batiste with French jackets of sea-green Georgette crepe and large "Marie Antoinette" hange trimmed with tiny ostrich feathers and silver grapes. They carried bouquets in lace holders.

Little Miss Jeanne Ward, of Clinton, Iowa, the flower girl, wore a white lace dress and carried a basket of lilies, white roses and smilax. Lewis, Dr. Joseph H. Schrup and Mr. J. R. Waller, all of Davenport, Iowa.

How to Judge a Woman by Her Hair

There are always the well-known and semi-humorous methods, such as saying brunettes are quick-tempered. But there is real common sense in just noticing whether the hair is well kept to judge a woman's neatness. If you are one of the few who try to make the most of your hair, remember that it is not advisable to wash the hair with any cleanser made for all purposes, but always use some good preparation made expressly for shampooing. You can enjoy the very best by getting some canthox from your druggist and dissolving a teaspoonful in a cup of hot water when your shampoo is all ready. After its use the hair dries rapidly with uniform color. Dandruff, excess oil and dirt are dissolved and entirely disappear. Your hair will be so fluffy that it will look much heavier than it is. Its lustre and softness will also delight you, while the stimulated scalp gains the health which insures hair growth.—Adv.
